200th Anniversary committee

The Board discussed the creation of a 200th Anniversary Committee together. After some discussion, the Board

Motion: To create a Hanson 200th Anniversary Committee of no less than nine members, but open to expansion as needed. (Howard/Mitchell) 5:0 motion passes.

Selectman Young suggested that the current composition should be three members at large, one selectman, two members of the business community, the Town Historian and a member of each the Historical Commission and Historical Society. The Board agreed to this in principal.
